

Depending on your setting's equipment, a timeline like the examples below, can be printed, laminated and displayed above sinks to remind/support children to wash their hands.

You may need to replace any of the photos with ones that have been taken within your setting.

This could be, for example, a different type of soap/soap dispenser, hand drying, etc.

