Dear Parents and Carers,

The NEU have announced further Teacher strikes on Wednesday 5th and Friday 7th July. This could potentially impact on our Transition Day which was due to take place on Friday 7th July and therefore the decision has been made to reschedule it.

Transition Day will now take place on Monday 10th July with the 'Meet the new Teacher' parents evening being held in the evening on that date. Further information will follow shortly.

Kind regards,

The Senior Leadership Team
