

Eliot class is within the Formal learning approach. There are 13 pupils in class and the class is based at the Snodland Satellite. The class is named after the author T S Eliot a famous writer, known for his poetry. One of his most famous poems about cats was made into the famous musical. Eliot class are supported throughout their day by a team of staff who transition with them to their different classes.

Pupils participate in a range of subjects including; maths, English, PE and science. They also study music, drama, IT, DT and humanities. During the year, pupils follow a range of topics and have opportunities to explore these practically whenever possible.

Eliot class will participate in rewards day activities throughout the year and will have opportunities to take part in extra curricular activities and clubs which are held at lunchtime.

